

Welcome

YOU ARE INVITED TO THE 1ST KING'S MANOR INTERDISCIPLINARY CONFERENCE:

This new student conference is designed to create interdisciplinary dialogue amongst the post-graduate community at King's Manor.

Focusing on Archaeology, Eighteenth Century Studies and Medieval Studies (and related disciplines) this two-day conference will include one day of workshops (Friday, July 15th) and one day of student papers and discussion (Saturday, July 16th).

To encourage interdisciplinary dialogue and community building there will be a wine reception on the evening of Friday, July 15th.

All members of the King's Manor community are welcome to attend and participate. Presentation sessions welcome drop-in attendees. A light lunch will be provided on Saturday, July 16th.

For more information, please visit our wiki:
(<https://kminterconference.wikispaces.com/Welcome>)

We would like to thank:

The University of York departments of Archaeology, Medieval Studies, and Eighteenth Century Studies for their support and encouragement, Simon Smith and the Student Presenters who have volunteered to participate—without which this conference would not have been possible, and all those who have chosen to come together in the spirit of interdisciplinary and collaboration. Thank You!

Event Schedule

Friday- 15, July 2011

- 2:00 P.M. WELCOME & HOUSEKEEPING - Room G/60
2:15 P.M. Workshop 1 - Room G/60
A beginner's guide to Wikipedia
Simon Smith
- 3:55 P.M. BREAK
4:15 P.M. Workshop 2 - Room K/111
Communicating Ideas Across Disciplines
Pat Hadley, Beth Compton, Ryan Hunt
- 5:45 P.M. WINE RECEPTION - Room K/111

Saturday- 16, July 2011 Room K/111

- 10:00 A.M. WELCOME & HOUSEKEEPING
Pat Hadley, Ryan Hunt, Beth Compton

Session 1- Theme: Pasts and Senses

- 10:20 A.M. Understanding Colour in Early Medieval England: An interdisciplinary approach using material culture and Old English literature Jocelyn Baker
- 10:40 A.M. Assembling the Puzzle of Song: Interdisciplinary Approaches to Early Medieval Music
Amanda Hauer
- 11:00 A.M. Capturing a Meal: Preference, Consumption and Subsistence in the Mesolithic
Marina McCaffrey
- 11:30 A.M. BREAK

Event Schedule Contd. on back...